communications for business

Jon,

We initially chose Burrow and Crowe as our accountants having heard many glowing reports from other BNI members.

We later approached you to take over some of our other financial tasks such as our book keeping.

The time you have saved us by doing so means that we have far more time to concentrate on main roles of running the business.

Your staff are friendly and always extremely helpful and I would have no hesitation at all in recommending Burrow and Crowe to any of my friends or contacts in the future.

Kind regards,

Mick Jordan.
